

Almost splitting and quantitative stratification for super Ricci flow

Yohei Sakurai,
Saitama University

I will discuss almost rigidity properties of super Ricci flow whose Muller quantity is non-negative. I will present almost splitting and quantitative stratification theorems that have been established by Bamler for Ricci flow. This talk is based on the joint work with Keita Kunikawa (Tokushima university).