

Immigration Services Agency Email Distribution Service

The Immigration Services Agency of Japan provides a service that delivers useful information about immigration, such as residency procedures and system guides, to registered email addresses. This service provides information to both foreign nationals living in Japan (foreign residents) and organizations and companies that employ or support foreign nationals (related organizations).

Immigration Services Agency Email Distribution Service

Visit the site <https://www.moj.go.jp/isa/publications/publications/mail-service.html?hl=en>

You can register to receive notifications in either Japanese, English, or Easy Japanese.

If you wish to receive in both English and Japanese, you can register for both languages.

The screenshot shows the website's header with the title "About new registration, changing registration information, canceling registration, and resetting password". Below this, it specifies "For foreign residents". The main text explains that this is an email distribution service for foreign residents in Japan and provides a registration link. A note states that notification emails will be sent 3 months and 2 weeks before the residence permit expires. The interface is organized into three language sections: Japanese, English, and Easy Japanese. Each section contains four buttons: "New registration", "Change registration information", "Unsubscribe", and "Password Reset". The English section is highlighted with a red border in the image.
